> THE MURDER IN SECOND STREET. EXECUTION OF THE MURDERER.

Li-a-Yau, the man who was convicted of murder at the Criminal Bessions, was hanged in Victoria Gaol this morning.

It will be remembered that the prisoner, who belongs to the humblest class of the community by whom the Western district of the city is peopled, on June 5 murdered a girl of eleven or twelve years of age. The motive for the murder was somewhat obscure, but as to the guilt of the man WE are asked to direct the attention of our | there was not, from the first, the the return to the Colony a few days before the murder of the growning son of the woman. He was treated successfully in the Government Civ I Hospital, and was brought up for trial in due course, found guilty by a special jury after a trial extending over two days, and sentenced to death by the Chief Justice.

Since sentence of death was passed, the condemned man has received every kindness in the Victoria Gaol. So fax as has been ascertained he maintained the same spirit of indifference which was so manifest during the whole of the Magisterial inquiry and the trial in the Supreme Court. Within the last few days he has received the ministerial administrations of a Chinese Roman Catholic priest, having refused to see any Buddhist priests.
